

Dear Heard on Hurd Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in our Edmond neighborhood block party! We are thrilled with the successful return of Heard on Hurd in 2022 and cannot wait to find out what the 10th season in 2023 will bring! With the 2022 season hosting an average of 25,000 per event, we aim to bring the message of local food, local shopping, local music and local banking to many in the OKC metro area and beyond in 2023.

The festival garners widespread media attention and our goal is to continue to bring awareness to local businesses through the loudspeaker of Heard on Hurd.

We invite you to review the vendor information packet carefully, complete all forms and return them to event organizers as soon as possible. Our vendors are selected by a Citizens Bank of Edmond committee. Our vendor selection committee works to have something special for every HoH attendee, including local unique vendors with diverse products to fulfill the tastes of various audiences. Thank you for your support of Heard on Hurd as it would not be possible without our amazing community.

We will do our best to make the event better for everyone, however we cannot fulfill all requests and appreciate your patience and understanding. Let's lift one another as we lift the community!

Please don't hesitate to contact us with any questions you may have.

Cheers to 2023 and our 10th season celebration!

FAQ's

What kind of vendors do you normally accept into Heard on Hurd?

We love diversity and being able to provide many different types of merchants and cuisines at Heard on Hurd. We accept local food trucks, artisan Pop-Up shops and a featured non-profit. Citizens Bank of Edmond customers are given priority in selection---we certainly invite you to join the Citizens family!

Why is electricity not provided?

Due to safety reasons, our circuits cannot support everyone being plugged into the outlets in downtown Edmond. Vendors can use generators if needed.

Why are state licenses and state tax permits required of vendors?

We aim to provide a high-quality event that is safe and beneficial for the community. All food vendors must be approved by the health department and are inspected so that our attendees can receive the highest quality of food. State tax permits are required so that the event can support the community holistically by benefitting the vendors who sell the merchandise and to the city who provides the space for us to have the event.

What is each vendor responsible for?

Each vendor is responsible for their own set up and tear down. Vendors MUST stay in their designated position for the duration of the event due to safety reasons. Leaving prior to the event conclusion will result in termination from future Heard on Hurd events.

What type of products for Pop-Up shops are you looking for?

Artisan products, clothing, gifts, vintage, home decor. We are not accepting direct sales representatives or consultants at this time.

Can I apply as an alcohol vendor?

Currently, we are not accepting any new alcohol vendors. Heard on Hurd aims to be a family friendly event and therefore, we will limit the number of alcohol vendors to provide a safe environment for all. However, our awesome downtown restaurants/bars have alcohol and include a great environment to consume it. Check out some downtown Edmond establishments such as The Patriarch, Othello's, The Mule, Frenzy and Edmond Railway!

How do I get my band to play at Heard on Hurd?

If you have an awesome local band, we want to hear from you! Shoot us an email to HeardonHurd@CitizensEdmond.com for consideration.
